DEDICATION

Dr. Jane Fox Barlow

Celebrates Her 30th

Year at SU

For the past thirty years Dr. Jane Fox Barlow has served as a professor of classical languages at Susquehanna University. Before she came to Susquehanna in 1954, she earned her B.A. degree at Smith College and her A.M. and Ph.D. degrees at the John Hopkins University.

Besides teaching various courses in Greek, Latin, classical literature, and ancient history, Dr. Barlow has served on several University committees. Moreover, she is a member of several professional organizations, including The American Philological Association, The American Classical League, The Classical Association of the Atlantic States, and The American Association of University Professors. In May of 1956, Dr. Barlow published an extract from her doctoral dissertation which was entitled "Metrical Word-types in the Latin Hexameter" in the Susquehanna University Studies.

Convinced that the value of a liberal, humanistic education is not diminished by either the passing of time or changes in technology, Dr. Barlow has consistently urged students to enter fields of study which interest them, not areas which at the time appear to be the most lucrative or popular. This perspective on education is an important asset in her capacity as adviser to many of the University's Evening School students.

In recognition of her many academic accomplishments and steadfast devotion to Susquehanna University and its students, we are proud to dedicate this 1984 edition of the Lantern to Dr. Jane Fox Barlow, the University's longest-serving faculty member.

SU

John App Honor Society

The John App Honor Society was established in 1980 to recognize and support superior scholastic achievement and to foster intellectual activities on campus. Membership is granted to students of junior or senior standing who have completed at least 18 courses with a cumulative average of 3.75. The society is named for John App, who donated the original tract of land on which the University is located.

Phi Alpha Theta is an international honor society in history. It is a society for students and professors who are elected to membership on the basis of excellence in the study and writing of history. It seeks to bring students, teachers, and writers of history together both intellectually and socially and it encourages and assists, in a variety of ways, historical research and publication by its members.

The minimum qualifications for election to the society are four course credits in history and one in progress; an average of 3.10 in all history courses; an average of 3.00 in two-thirds of the remainder of the courses; and a rank in the upper 35% of the class. The Lambda Kappa Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta At Susquehanna is advised by Dr. John Longaker, professor of history.

Phi Alpha Theta

Delta Mu Delta

First row: Janet Chesnutt, Sherri Leitzel.
Second row: Keith Duvin, Fred Cabell, Winnie Keller.

Delta Mu Delta is a national honorary society in business administration. In order to become eligible for membership, a student must be a business or an accounting major, have at least junior standing, maintain a 3.5 GPA, and be in the upper fifth of his class. The Susquehanna chapter, Gamma Upsilon, was chartered in 1980.

Beta Beta Beta

Beta Beta Beta is a national honor society in biology for undergraduate students. The society seeks to stimulate student scholarship, dissemination of scientific knowledge, and promotion of biological research.

In order to qualify for active membership, the undergraduate must be a major in the biological sciences, and must have completed at least one term of the second year of a year of a four-year curriculum and three courses in biology beyond the introductory level with a 3.0 average. The candidate must also be in good academic standing.

The Lambda Sigma Chapter of Beta Beta Beta at Susquehanna is advised by Dr. George C. Boone, associate professor of biology.

Kappa Mu Epsilon

Kappa Mu Epsilon is a national honorary mathematics fraternity whose purpose is to give recognition to all undergraduate students who have achieved honors standing in mathematics and to stimulate interest in all branches of mathematics. Membership requirements are the completion of three or more mathematics courses with an overall average of 3.0 and a rank in the upper 35% of the class.

Chartered in 1969, the Pennsylvania Theta Chapter at Susquehanna provides free tutorial service to all mathematics students of the University. Mrs. Carol Harrison, associate professor of mathematical sciences, is the adviser.

Shawn Wagner, Jay Feaster, Mark Drogalis, Kelly Dressler, Maria Barry.

Buz Conover; Doug Herrold, Steve McGinty, Lisa Karpustay (President), Geraldine Gorman.

Phi Sigma Alpha

Pi Sigma Alpha is a national honorary society for those students excelling in the study of political science. The local chapter was founded in 1977. Dr. Robert Bradford, professor of political science, is the adviser.

Alpha Lambda Delta

Alpha Lambda Delta is a national honor society to which freshmen with outstanding academic records are elected and retain active membership throughout their sophomore year.

The purpose of the society is "... to encourage superior scholastic achievement among students in their first year of institutions of higher learning education, to promote intelligent living and a continued high standard of learning, and to assist men and women in recognizing and developing meaningful goals for their roles in society."

The Susquehanna Chapter has several activities. The first is the initiation of new members in the fall and spring. Another is the annual plant sale. A new activity begun this year was the "fire-side chat" designed to encourage an interest in applying academic pursuits to present world events. Dr. James Blessing, associate professor of political science, and Dr. Nancy Cairns, professor of French, are the advisers.

Psi Chi, a national honor society in psychology, was initiated at Susquehanna in May of 1968. Its purpose is to advance the study of psychology and to encourage, stimulate, and maintain scholarship of the individual members in all academic fields, particularly psychology.

In order to become a member of Psi Chi, a student should have completed a minimum of three courses in psychology beyond the introductory level with at least a 3.0 average, and must be accepted by vote of the members of the honorary. Dr. G. Edward Schweikert, associate professor of psychology, is the adviser.

Eric Ullsh, Don Tramontano, Melanie Lilley, Alan Turns.

Psi Chi

Alpha Psi Omega

Alpha Psi Omega is a national fraternity organized for the purpose of providing an honor society for those performing a high standard of work in theatre. The Susquehanna chapter, Theta Phi, was chartered in 1941. Dr. Bruce Nary, professor of speech, is the adviser.

Accounting Club

The Accounting Club seeks to develop an interest, both theoretically and practically, in exploring the various career fields in accounting available to student members upon graduation. During the academic year, the club sponsors various speakers, trips, and other programs to benefit the interests of members in public, industrial, and governmental accounting. Membership is open to all members of the campus community interested in the field of accounting. Mr. Martin Billet, instructor in accounting, is the club adviser.

Investments Club

The Investments Club was organized in 1982 to provide students interested in the stock market with the opportunity to make collective investments. Its activities include discussions, lectures and workshops which aid the club in researching the market and determining which stocks or securities to purchase. The club works through the brokerage firm of E.F. Hutton in Williamsport. Mr. David Bussard and Mr. Frederick Sauter, assistant professors of business administration, are the advisers.

Pete Arduini, Phil Apostolico, Bill Todt, Robin Carraro, Scott Erikson.

The purpose of the Susquehanna University Collegiate Chapter of the American Marketing Association is to develop sound thinking in business theory and to accumulate knowledge of business principles in the "real" business world. Its goals are realized through practical experience and activities such as films, speakers, and field trips to local establishments. Mr. Bussard, assistant professor of business administration, is the adviser.

chemical plant. Club membership is open to all students and faculty interested in chemical phenomena. Dr. Thomas McGrath, professor of chemistry, is the adviser.

Astronomy Club

The Astronomy Club was organized during the spring of 1983 to create and further student interest in astronomy; to promote the advancement and study of the astronomical sciences; and to foster the values and philosophy of science among its members and the campus community as a whole.

The club's goals are realized through lectures, films, and field trips to observatories and planetariums. Membership is open to all students and faculty interested in astronomy. Dr. Fred Grosse, professor of physics, is the adviser.

Bob Lustyik, Bill Admire, Debbie Guldner.

Biology Club

The Biology Club was organized in 1974 for students and faculty interested in the biological sciences. Its purpose is to promote comradeship among fellow students, foster professional development, and promote a professional pride among its members. Speakers, films, picnic, and other activities are held during the academic year to promote the purpose of the club. Dr. Jack Holt, assistant professor of biology, is the club adviser.

Psychology Club

Founded just last year, the Psychology Club was organized in an effort to extend the student's knowledge of psychology to topics not specifically presented in the classroom. The club sponsors films, lectures, discussions, and workshops which deal with all areas of psychology, including educational, social, clinical, and abnormal psychology; past topics of discussion have included dream analysis and bio feedback. Membership is open to all interested students and faculty. Dr. Barbara Lewis, assistant professor of psychology and education, is the adviser.

Dr. Cherulnik, Lisa Ledebuer, Karen Seifert, Colleen Brennan, Deb Zimmerman, Julie Richards, Mary Buckley, Beth Gordon.

The Society of Physics Students was recently organized in an effort to extend the student's knowledge of physics to topics which are not specifically discussed in the classroom. Monthly meetings are held at which time speakers or films are presented. Dr. Fred Grosse professor of physics, is the adviser.

Buz Conover, Phil Gross, Dr. Grosse, Luke Hamilton, Jerry Wojcienhowski, Bob Walker, Dr. Kozlowski.

Society of Physics Students

Geology Club

Organized in January of 1973, the Geology Club consists of students and faculty interested in the geological sciences. It seeks to foster a professional spirit among its members and to promote professional development in the science of geology. The club's activities include field trips, lectures, films, hiking and camping trips, and fund-raising events. Club membership is open to all interested members of the campus community. Dr. Richard Lowright, associate professor of geology, is the club adviser.

The International Club was established at Susquehanna in May of 1971 to promote the cultural exchange of experience between foreign students and the American people. Club membership includes foreign students, faculty members of foreign nationalities, foreigners of non-immigrant status from the community, and any interested member of the campus community. Ms. Dorothy Anderson, Dean of Students, and Mrs. Sachiko Presser are the club advisers.

International Club

English Club

Kevin Kenny, Stephanie Farkas, Joy Wood, Pam Holland, Karen Shustack, Anna Milheim, Jennifer Colson, Jamie Apple, Andy Motel.

The Spanish Club was organized to stimulate interest in the Spanish language, history, and culture and to promote Spanish cultural activities on campus. The club sponsors the weekly Spanish Children's Hour, tutors elementary children, and travels to plays, shows, and exhibits exemplifying the art and culture of Spain. It also meets weekly at dinnertime to discuss topics of general interest.

Membership is open to all interested students and faculty of the University. Fluency in Spanish is not required. Dr. Robert Mowry, professor of Spanish, and Mrs. Elsa Gilmore, lecturer in Spanish, are the advisers.

Carol Dillion, George Kobrick, Robin Brown, Wilma Gonzales, Antonio Lopez.

Spanish Club

French Club

Jeff Lepinski, Ken Trumbell, Marge Guckus, Kelly McKey, Janice DeSoussa, Karen Dotie, Lauren Brod.

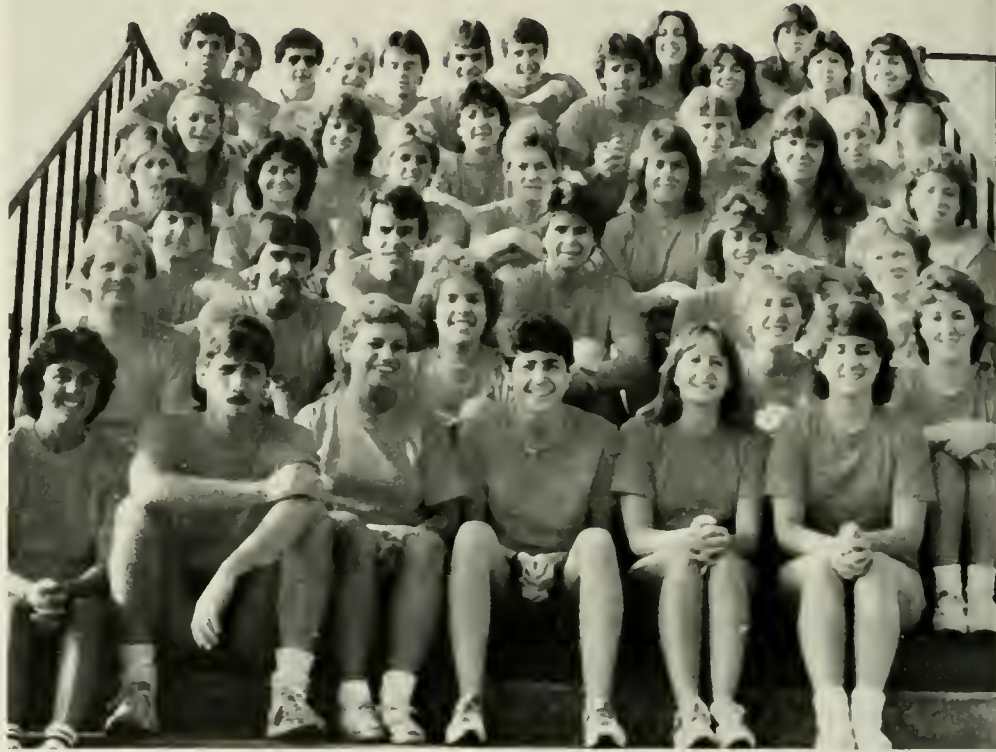

The German Club or Deutscher Verein was founded in April of 1972 to stimulate an interest in the German language and to promote German cultural activities on the Susquehanna campus. To achieve these goals the club annually sponsors activities such as films, lectures, the Faschingsfest, Fruhlingsfest, and Oktoberfest. Club membership is open to all interested students and faculty. Dr. Harold Fry, assistant professor of German, is the adviser.

German Club

Orientation Planning Committee

The Orientation Planning Committee is a self-perpetuating body composed of upper-class students. The OPC begins to meet in December of each year to plan the freshman orientation program for the following September. The group is also responsible for the student adviser program in which upperclassmen assist incoming freshmen. Vic Collazo, assistant dean of students, is the adviser.

Student Activities Committee

The Student Activities Committee, the primary social organization on campus, consists of officers, committee chairmen, and members. Any interested student is welcome to join in the work of the SAC as it attempts to provide a wide variety of social activities at Susquehanna.

Association for Women Students

Affiliated with the Intercollegiate Association for Women Students, the Association for Women Students at Susquehanna seeks to serve all women students in some capacity by promoting activities such as films, lectures, the Big/Little Sister program, and May Court preparations. All women students of the University are automatically members of the association. Mrs. Elsa Gilmore, lecturer in Spanish, is the adviser.

Student PSEA-NEA

The Student PSEA-NEA at Susquehanna University is open to students preparing for a career in the teaching profession and is affiliated with the Pennsylvania State Education Association (NEA). Membership in the state and national associations entitles the student to the major monthly publications of these organizations and professional liability insurance during student teaching. A membership limited only to the campus organization is also available at a reduced membership fee.

The main purpose of the Student PSEA-NEA is to acquaint the prospective teacher with the aims, responsibilities, and benefits of a career in teaching. Varied programs are designed to look at teaching from the many viewpoints of the high school student, student teacher, cooperating teacher, administrator, parents, and the professional organizations. Members who attend the state and regional conferences have additional opportunities to broaden their pre-professional experience and to learn what other PSEA chapters are doing.

The Student PSEA-NEA at Susquehanna is advised by Dr. Charles Igoe, professor of education.

WQSU-FM is a 3,000-watt (5600erp) non-commercial radio station operating at 88.9 mhz on the FM dial. WQSU-FM began broadcasting in the spring of 1967 and since then has become an important part of campus life. It broadcasts album-oriented rock along with public information and cultural programming.

WQSU-AM is a carrier current station broadcasting exclusively to the Susquehanna campus. It provides the best in Top 40 music and up-to-the-minute reports of news and weather. Mr. Larry Augustine, associate professor of speech, is the station general manager.

Sue Smith, FM music director; Mary Muscarelli, news director; Chris Markle, FM operations manager; Harry Kostyk, FM production manager; Tim Sauers, AM operations manager.

Crusader

Successor to the Susquehanna established in 1894, the Crusader is Susquehanna University's weekly newspaper published by the students throughout the academic year except during holidays and examination periods. Its basic philosophy and editorial policy is to report all news of interest to the campus community as fairly and accurately as possible and to serve as an open forum through which community members can make announcements and express opinions.

Membership on the Crusader staff is open to all interested students, regardless of previous experience. Executive staff appointments are made by the Publications Committee on the basis of competitive application. Non-executive staff appointments are made by the executive staff. # Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is a professional fraternity for men interested in music. Its purpose is to promote music on campus and in the community and to uphold high standards of musical performance.

Throughout the academic year, the Lambda Beta Chapter at Susquehanna sponsors various musical activities including fall and spring musicals.

Most members participate in a performing organization on campus; however, a major in music is not required for membership. Dr. Donald Beckie, associate professor of music, and Dr. John Zurfluh, assistant professor of music, are the advisers.

The Susquehanna University Singers is a small vocal group of twelve singers and pianists which is completely student directed and organized. The main function of the group is to provide light entertainment for various community organizations in the surrounding area.

The SU Singers are well received on campus because they present annual Christmas and spring concerts of pop music. The group has also performed original music and special arrangements composed by students. Membership is open to all students and is determined by audition.

Music Educators' National Conference

The student chapter of MENC at Susquehanna is part of a wider national organization and is open to all students in the music education curriculum. The purpose of an MENC chapter is to provide opportunity for professional development for college students through participation in state, division, and national meetings and through on-campus meetings of the chapter. Meetings are important for the future music teacher and include material not covered in the conventional music curriculum. Dr. Timothy Gerber, assistant professor of music, is the adviser.

Koinonia

First row: Mary Wolfe, Stepanie Farkas, Carol Dillon, Laura Lodge.
Second row: Scott Deitch, Gene Wagner, Chaplain Ludwig.

Koinonia, an organization for those interested in theology, hopes to challenge spiritual growth among its members, many of whom are pre-theological students preparing to enter church-related vocations. Exploration of religious concepts through discussing, learning, and understanding is its purpose; however, Koinonia also aims to expand the commitment of its members out into the community, making theology an applicable reality.

The goals of Koinonia are realized through discussions of current issues in religion, films, lectures, and field trips, including an annual trip to the Luther Colloquium at Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary in October. Koinonia is advised by the Rev. Glenn Ludwig, chaplain to the University.

InterVarsity Christian Fellowship

The Intersvarsity Christian Fellowship group at Susquehanna meets weekly for fellowship and Bible study. Students of all faiths are invited to attend.

Deacons

The student deacons of the Weber Chapel are selected each spring by the University's Advisory Committee on Religious Life. They assist the Chaplain in planning the weekly worship services on campus and also provide programs for area churches.

Chapel Council

The Chapel Council consists of students with a strong desire to become part of a Judaeo-Christian community, develop an awareness of themselves and the world around them, serve others through community service projects, and assist in campus worship experiences. Regular activities include retreats, urban study trips, films, theme parties, picnics, weekly visits to a local nursing home, "sing things," CROP walks, and discussions on current issues. All activities are open to the entire campus community. The Chapel Council is advised by the Rev. Glenn Ludwig, chaplain to the University.

Chapel Choir

The Chapel Choir is a performing and service choral organization open to all students of the University by audition. It provides music for most of the campus Sunday worship services and presents an annual Christmas Candlelight Service as well as one formal campus concert.

Rehearsals are held twice weekly. High standards of choral musicianship are stressed through a wide variety of sacred and secular choral literature. All music majors are guaranteed membership in the Chapel Choir, which is conducted by Dr. Susan Hegberg, assistant professor of music.

Scuba Club

Formed to promote the University's scuba and skin diving program, the Scuba Club consists of students interested in scuba diving. The organization is designed to enhance individual skills and proficiency in coping with the underwater environment. Membership is not limited only to those individuals who are certified.

The Club owns a number of full equipment units for diving. While practice sessions are held in the swimming pool, diving trips are conducted throughout the year to many of the nearby quarries, creeks, and lakes. A special trip to the Underwater Explorer Society at Freeport on the Grand Bahama Island is held each year during the break between second and third term. The Scuba Club is advised by Mr. Bruce Wagenseller, associate professor of physical education and health.

Carolyn Bloxham, John Beattie, Tim Bilger, Mike Mitchell, Bruce Wagenseller.

The Photography Club was organized to create and further student interest in photography, and to provide interested students with instruction in the taking, developing, and printing of photographs. It sponsors an annual exhibition and competition through which some of the winning photography has gone on to receive national recognition. Members of the club are entitled to use the University's dark room facilities. Mr. Jeffrey Gilmore, director of student activities, is the adviser.

Photography Club

Ski Club

Rich Shriver, Scott Erikson, Steve Bentz, Al Wakeman, Toni Pall, Stu Fornoff, John Contino, Karen Doty.

The Ski Club was organized in 1970 to encourage interest in skiing among Susquehanna students. During the ski season, monthly meetings are held at which time films are presented. The club also sponsors an annual trip to Mt. Hood in Vermont during Christmas break as well as day and weekend outings to nearby ski areas, including Big Boulder in the Poconos. All students, faculty, and staff of the University are welcome to join the club.

Outing Club

The Outing Club was formed to promote a healthy appreciation for all outdoor sports and a heightened concern for the beauty and fragility of the environment. It exists not only to foster outdoor activities among its members but also to encourage individual and group involvement in environmental and allied areas of activity.

Pursued year-round, the club's activities are dependent upon the interests of its members, but include hiking, weekend camping, white-water canoeing and rafting, bicycling, cross-country skiing, cave exploring, and hang gliding.

All students, faculty, and staff of the University are eligible to join the club. Mr. John Moore is the club adviser.

Focus

Focus, Susquehanna's literary magazine, was first published in the spring of 1964. Now published annually, Focus contains selected prose, poetry, photography, and art work done by members of the campus community and prizes are awarded for outstanding contributions in each area. Dr. Gary Fincke, lecturer in English, is the adviser.

Joy Wood (Editor), Dr. Gary Fincke.

The University yearbook, The Lanthorn, is issued by members of the junior class, with the top editorial and managerial appointments made by the Publications Committee in consultation with the executive staff of the previous staff. The Lanthorn contains a complete record of life at Susquehanna portrayed by pictures, prose, and poetry. Mr. George Tamke, assistant to the president for University relations, is the adviser.

Sigma Alpha Iota

Sigma Alpha Iota is a national academic discipline for women interested in music. Its purpose is to foster interest in music, improve music education, and promote social contact among musicians.

Now in its fifty-sixth year of service at Susquehanna, the Sigma Omega Chapter annually sponsors various musical activities, including fund raising for national music and charity organizations, performing shows for local elementary schools, and presenting campus concerts and music clinics. Although many of the sisters of Sigma Alpha Iota participate in performing organizations on campus, a "major" in music is not required for membership.

With the addition of Widener and Moravian to an already tough schedule the Crusaders' quest for a championship would not be an easy one. As it turned out, the season was a dream come true for the maroon and orange.

Beginning their season with a hard fought tie against Lycoming, the Crusaders proceeded to sweep through the rest of their schedule and become the first undefeated team since 1962 and the first MAC champion since 1970. Their 8-0-1 record garnered them a 9th place ranking in Division III by the NCAA.

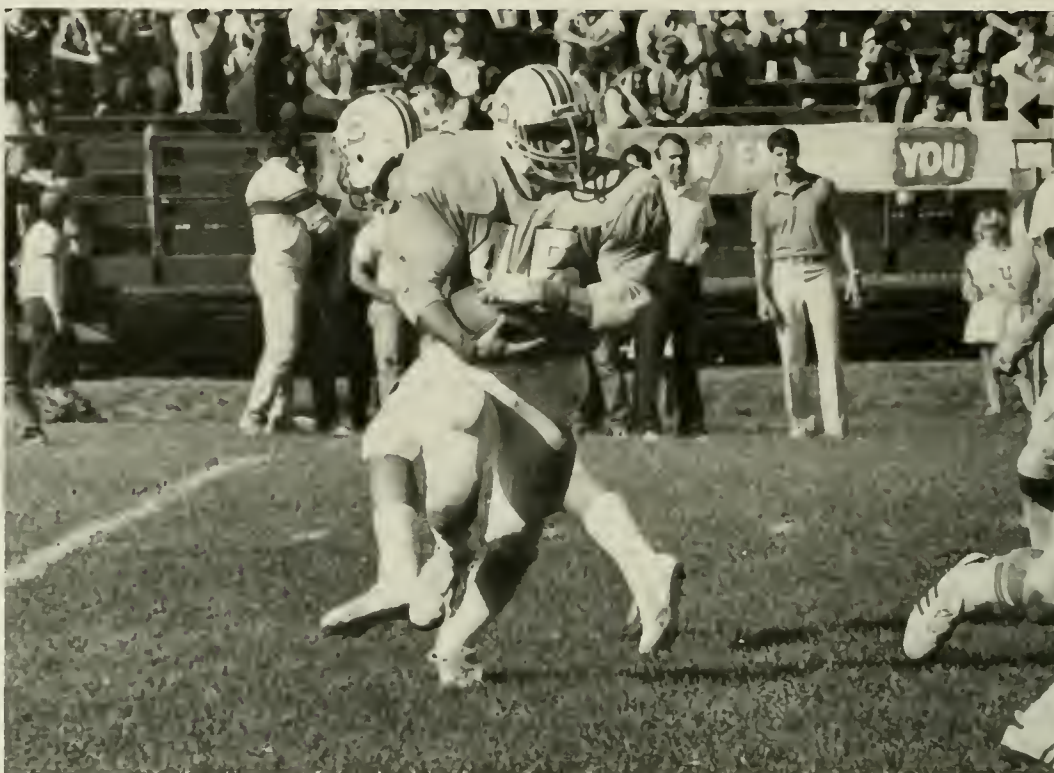

The offense was led by seniors Hank Belcolle, Tom Bariglio, Andy Foster and Earl Fullerton. The potent offense was ranked second in the conference for total offense and 10th in the country for scoring.

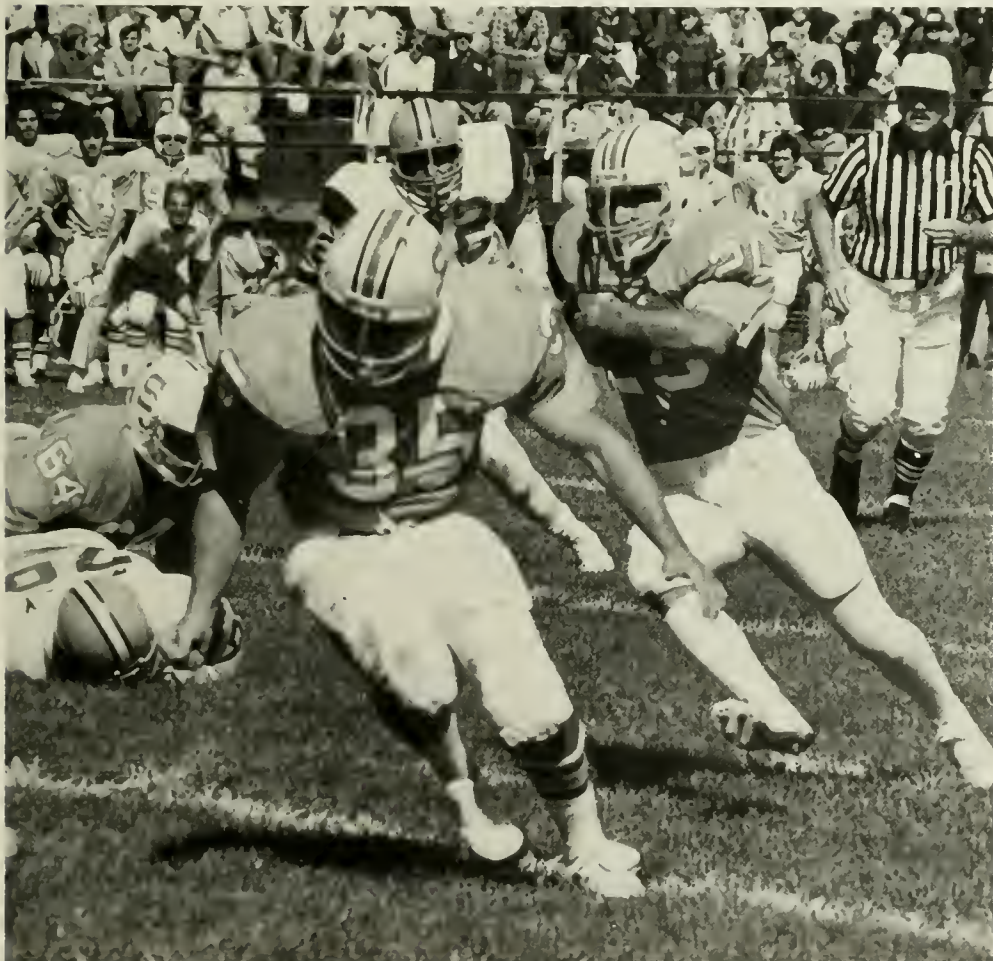

The tough Crusader defense also finished 2nd in the conference for total defense. Captain Rod Bamford, Dennis Dyroff, George Stockburger, Steve Miller, and Roy O'Neill helped lead the stingy defense. They finished 3rd in the country in yards allowed rushing per game and 8th for points allowed per game.

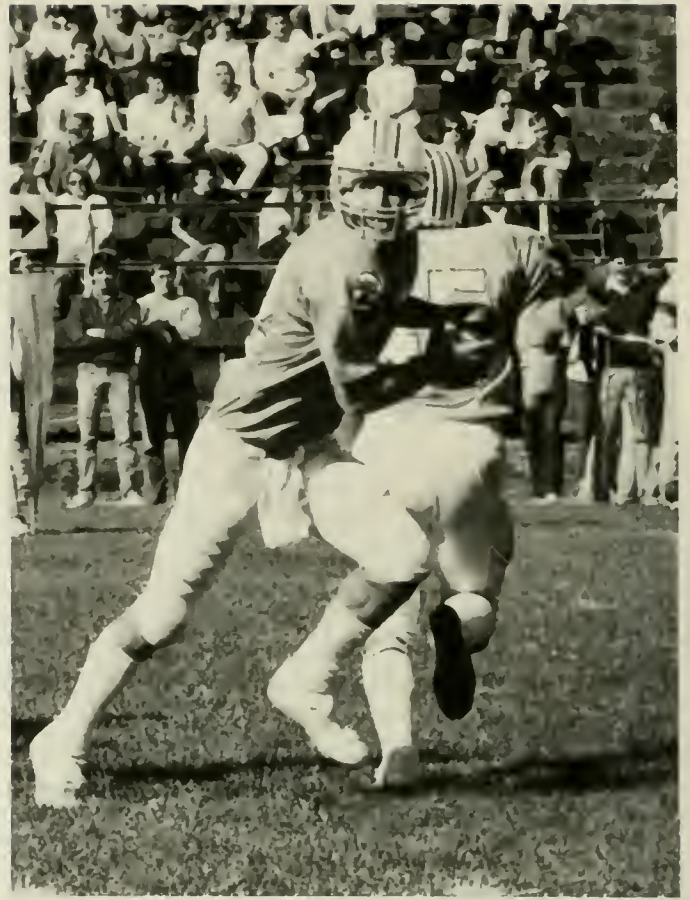

MAC all conference selections included Belcolle, Bamford, Dyroff, Todd McCarthy and Bryan Ravitz. The ECAC also selected Belcolle, Bamford, Dyroff and McCarthy as first team members. Belcolle was named MVP of the conference and player of the year by the ECAC.

Head coach Bill Moll was chosen as MAC Coach of the Year for the second year in a row. Coach Moll was also selected as one of the 5 regional coaches of the year by Kodak.

In the beginning there were those who had doubts, but 1983 was truly the "Year of the Crusader." They had the spirit and didn't let anyone take it from them.

1983 MAC CHAMPIONS

Sharing the spot as top scorers for the Crusaders this season with 6 goals each were sophomore Jean Flaherty and freshman Felicia McClymont. Megan Moyer, also a freshman, scored 5 times followed by sophomore Gigi Hoff with 4.

Mary Jane McLaughlin, another freshman, was the Lady Crusader assist-leader with 3 assists while McClymont had 2.

Handling the bulk of the goalie chores was junior Jean Babyak, who allowed only 1.2 goals per game and made 47 saves.

The young squad coached by Connie Delbaugh, assistant professor of physical education, will lose only two seniors at graduation next spring. They are Lynn Allen and Toni Pall.

First row: Karen Dragon, Michelle Bardman, Lynn Reinhagen, Lynn Allen, Toni Pall.

The soccer team ended its 1983 season with a 6-7-2 overall record and 5-6-1 in the MAC. Leading scorers were junior Jeff Stolting and sophomore Tim Kinsella with three goals apiece. Stolting also led the Crusaders in assists with four, followed by Kinsella and junior midfielder Harry Powers with two each. Junior goalie Greg Cordasco made 112 saves and allowed only 1 goal per game. The Crusaders were led by first year Coach David Hahn, a 1971 graduate of Susquehanna. This year's squad will lose only four seniors. They are midfielders Tim Bentz and Bill Welker along with backs Pat Smith and Charlie Soranno.

LEYBALL VOLLEYBALL VOLLEYBALL VOLLEYBALL VOLLEYBALL VOLLE

Under first-year Coach Donna Papa, the volleyball team qualified for the Middle Atlantic Conference playoffs with its 8-7 MAC record. Their regular season mark was 9-11.

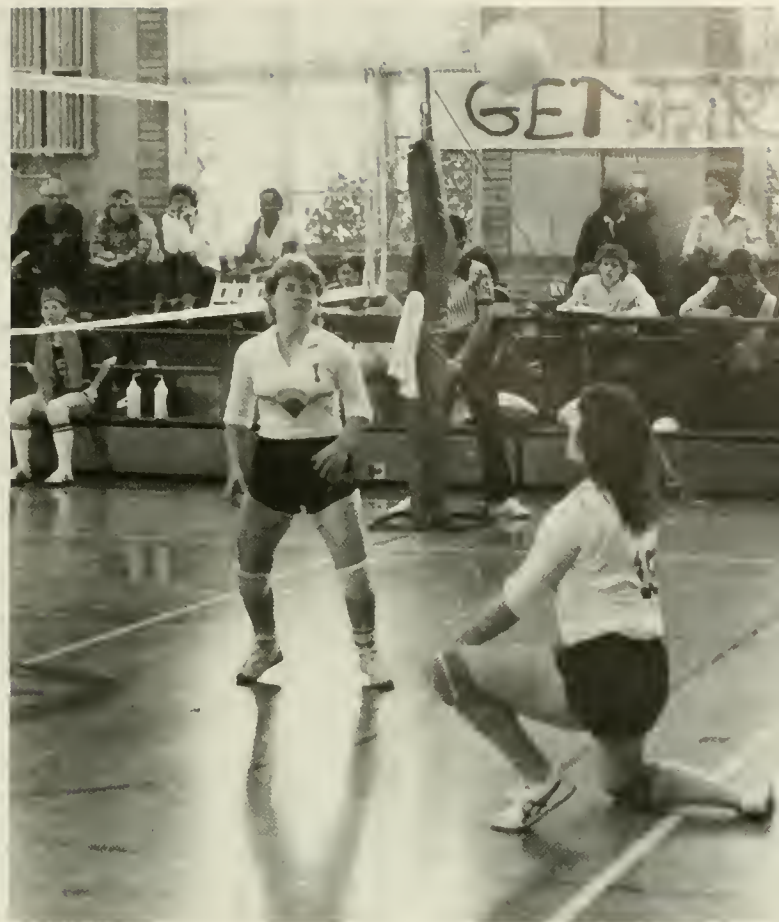

Although the record didn't show it, both the coaches and the players felt they had a successful season. The young squad, with only three seniors, improved tremendously over last year's dismal 3-16 record.

Graduating from the 1983 squad will be Karen Brunner, Barbara Clapp, and Virginia Kiselica.

CROSS COUNTRY CROSS COUNTRY CROSS COUNTRY CROSS COUNTRY

The cross country team posted another fine season with its outstanding 16-1 effort. The Crusader harriers also placed third among 24 teams at the Middle Atlantic Conference Championships. The leader was junior Greg Pealer who was named an All-American after placing 11th in the NCAA Division III cross country championships held at Christopher Newport College. He qualified by finishing third in the Mid-East Regional after winning the MAC run.

Pealer is the first cross country performer at Susquehanna ever to receive All-American honors. An outstanding athlete, he has won 41 of 44 regular season races while at Susquehanna.

Only three seniors will be lost to graduation, so next year should be a promising one.

With the return of 4 starters and the help of several talented support people, this year's edition of the Crusader basketball team was a formidable Middle Atlantic Conference contender.

Leading the Crusaders was senior captain Scott Gabel, an All-MAC player who reached the 1,000-point mark in his collegiate career Dec. 9 against Philadelphia Textile.

Another senior, Jack Esworthy, filled the point guard spot. At center was yet another senior veteran, Larry Walsh, a strong rebounder and the 1984 Crusader Classic MVP.

The fourth starter returning from last year was junior Rick Ferry at forward, and rounding out the Crusader starting 5 was sophomore guard Mike Gress.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL WOMEN'S BASKETBALL WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

At first glance, the 1983-84 version of the women's basketball team could have been easily mistaken for last year's 24-2 MAC championship squad. Except for a few minor alterations, Coach Tom Diehl's Lady Crusaders boasted the same personnel who wrote the 1983 success story. The team had 10 returning letterwinners and all 5 starters back from last season, plus the promise of several talented freshmen.

Leading the squad were junior point guard and 1983 Kodak Regional All-American Deb Yeasted and senior captain Ruth Athey, both of whom reached the 1,000-career-point plateau this year. Deb was also named MVP in the Lady Crusader Classic.

SWIMMING AND DIVING SWIMMING AND DIVING SWIMMING AND DIVING

In only their 5th year as varsity sports, the 1983-84 swimming squads increased in size and talent and were "vastly improved," according to head coach Ged Schweikert.

This season, the men's team grew from 12 to 15 swimmers and the women's squad increased from a mere 5 to 15 persons, with the addition of 10 very talented freshmen.

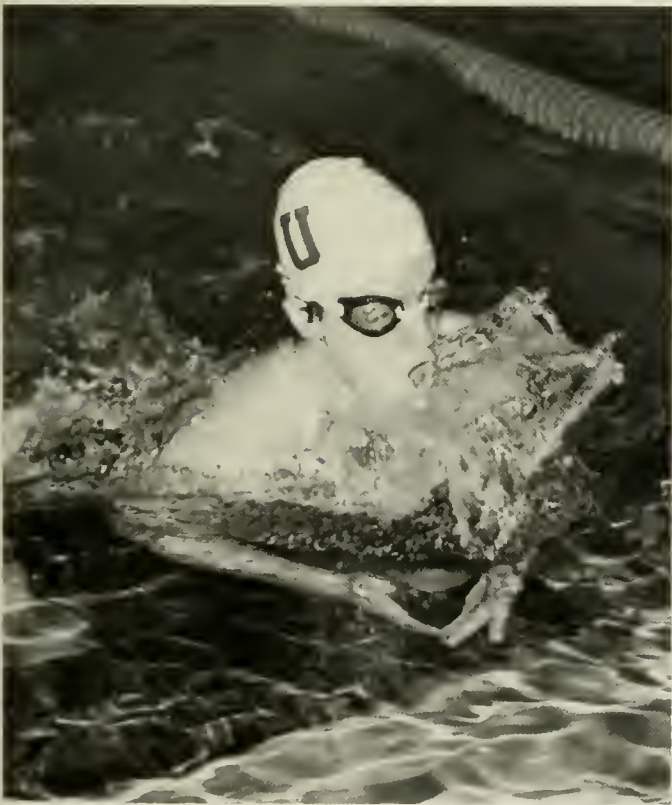

But perhaps the greatest improvement over a year ago was the fact that the team included divers, something last year's squads lacked.

RESTLING WRESTLING WRESTLING WRESTLING WRESTLING WRESTLING

The young 1983-84 Crusader wrestling team looked to the talents of two pairs of brothers to help improve upon last season's disappointing 4-11-1 finish.

Senior co-captain Mike Deckard along with his sophomore brother Steve, and sophomore twins Howie and Rob Letts made the grapplers' starting line-up look like a family affair.

The Deckards wrestled at 190 and 177 pounds respectively. On the lighter side of the scale was Howie Letts at 118 and brother Rob at 126 pounds.

Sophomore Ken Peifer added some spark to the lower weights at the 134 pound level. At the 142 class was sophomore Bob Callahan, a transfer from Rutgers.

The Crusaders had the most depth between 150 and 167 pounds. Alternating at 150 and 158 pounds was the freshmen trio of Jeff Clausen, Russ Lose, and Aric Wilson. Senior John Contino was tops at 167 pounds.

FRESHMAN ORIENTATION

The Freshman Orientation process at Susquehanna is unique because of the tremendous student involvement. It is an enjoyable and enlightening time and an important part of the Susquehanna experience.

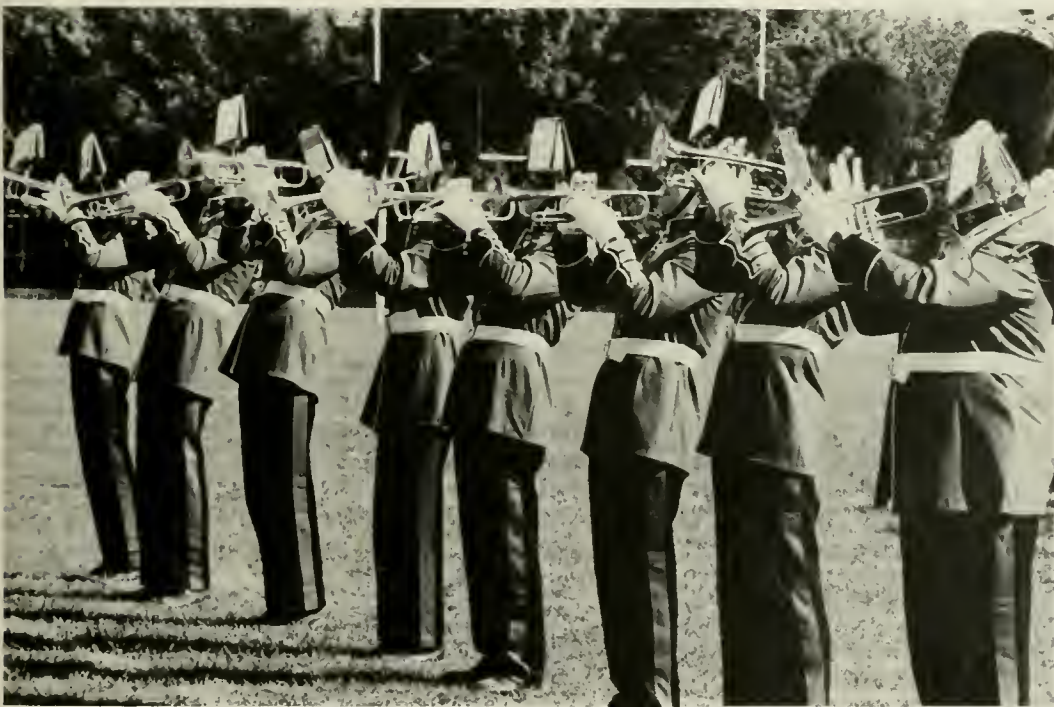

The purpose of Freshman Orientation is to make the first few days of a freshman's college life easier. It is a four-day crash course on how to survive at Susquehanna.

The Class of 1987 arrived at Susquehanna on September 1, 1983. Their next few days were packed with activities, including the annual picnic, student and parent panels, academic division and departmental meetings, playfair, and convocation.

HOME COMING 1983

Susquehanna University celebrated its annual Homecoming during the weekend of September 24.

Among the weekend's activities were the annual Homecoming Parade, a football game, and the crowning of senior Barb Clapp as the 1983 Homecoming Queen.

Also, the 1983-84 SU Artist Series opened with a performance by the Ballet Nacional Espanol.

Susquehanna University held its annual Parents Weekend the weekend of October 29.

A wide range of activities were offered to the visiting parents. Open classroom visitations as well as faculty conferences were held. A recognition dinner for the University Scholars and their parents was also given during the weekend.

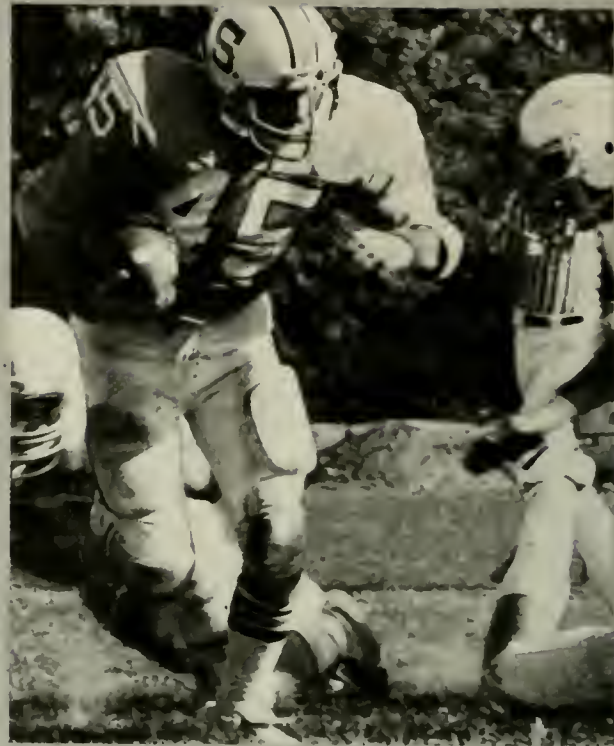

One of the highlights of the weekend was the SU theatre and music departments' production of Stephen Sondheim's tony award-winning musical "Company."

Sports also played an important role in the busy weekend. Parents could attend any of the sports activities, which included a football game, a soccer match, a volleyball match, a cross-country meet, and a field hockey game.

Today two friends have left, but their faces are forever alive.
The voices of laughter have silenced, but the familiar echo still sounds.
The warm touch of friendship is gone, but the memories never fade.

So, let the way wind up the hill or down,
O'er rough or smooth, the journey
will be joy;
Still seeking what I sought when but a boy,
New friendship, high adventure, and a crown,
My heart will keep the courage of the quest,
And hope the road's last turn will be the best.

— Henry Van Dyke
